

Veterans: a Highly Effective Workforce How to Recruit and Retain Veterans in Community Health Centers

Jeff Mengenhauen, MBA, Chief Operating Officer, Horizon Health Care, Inc.
10 year US Navy SEAL, Active Duty and Active Reserves, Special Operations Chief/E-7

Thursday, November 14, 2013
11:00am–12:30pm Pacific / 12:00pm–1:30pm Mountain / 1:00pm–2:30pm Central

Additional Resources

The Difficult Transition from Military to Civilian Life

Report details the factors that predict an easy or hard re-entry into civilian life.
Pew Research Center

Employment Situation of Veterans

News release details employment status of veterans based on veteran status, period of service, sex, race, disability, and ethnicity.
Bureau of Labor Statistics

Health Centers Hire Veterans Challenge

The Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) offers nursing training assistance to veterans to assist in a transition to the civilian healthcare workforce.
HRSA

Helping Veterans Become Nurses

The Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) offers physician assistant training assistance to veterans to assist in a transition to the civilian healthcare workforce.
HRSA

Helping Veterans Become Physician Assistants

The Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) offers information for veterans interested in working at a health center, case studies of successful health center outreach efforts, and a directory of employment opportunities.
HRSA

Hero 2 Hired (H2H)

Resource offers job listings, networking opportunities, advice, and other information for veterans.
H2H

Joint Base Lewis-McChord Army and Air Force Career and Alumni Program

Presentation slides from an October 2013 event hosted by the Western Washington Area Health Education Center and the Washington Department of Health.
Transition Services and Connecting with the Service Member Talent Pipeline in Washington State

National Association of Community Health Centers (NACHC)

Handouts on how veterans and community health centers can connect.
Making the Connection between Veterans and Community Health Centers
Veterans and Community Health Centers

Co-Hosted by the Regional and State Primary Care Associations of Region X:

Veterans: a Highly Effective Workforce

How to Recruit and Retain Veterans in Community Health Centers

November 14, 2013

Additional Resources, continued

National Resource Directory

Organization offers a job bank for veterans and resources for employers and service providers.

Job Bank

Resources

National Veterans' Training Institute

The Disabled Veterans Outreach Program (DVOP)/Local Veteran Employment Representative (LVER) Locator provides the user the ability to locate veterans' service professionals in a particular geographic location.

DVOP/LVER Locator

Veterans' Employment and Training Service (VETS)

Resource provides information and tools for employers, service providers, veterans, service members, and families including news updates, testimonies, and events.

Department of Labor

Department of Labor and Veterans Fact Sheet

Veterans' Employment and Training Service Research Center

Resource includes information on labor market trends and outcomes, competitive grants, compliance assistance for veteran hiring acts, and many other resources.

Department of Labor