

Board Self Evaluation Discussion Questions

Rate Each of the Following Board Responsibilities on a Scale from 1-5 with 5 Being the Highest and 1 Being the Lowest

Composition and Preparedness

1. The board reflects the demographics of the community
2. The board is in compliance with federal requirements
3. The board has adequate legal, financial and clinical expertise
4. The board fully understands the history and mission of the organization
5. All board members understand their fiduciary and legal responsibilities
6. The board solicits ongoing input from the target populations
7. The board effectively communicates decisions to those effected by them.
8. The board has credibility in the community.

Board Performance

1. The board meets monthly in accordance with federal regulations.
2. There is a quorum at each meeting
3. Appropriate committee and CEO reports are provided regularly.
4. The board has a positive interaction with the CEO.

Meeting Effectiveness

1. Everyone participates at board meetings.
2. Members understand and follow basic parliamentary procedures.
3. Members feel safe expressing concerns.
4. Conflicts or tensions are resolved satisfactorily.
5. The chair effectively keeps discussions on track.
6. Board members receive relevant materials in a timely fashion

Discussion Questions

1. What are the board's strengths and weaknesses?
2. How well does the board meet it's responsibilities?
3. How could the board perform more efficiently and effectively?

