

BECOME A COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTER ADVOCATE

What does it mean to be an advocate?

- Use your voice to spread the word about the importance of Community Health Centers.
- Stay educated about local, state, and federal policies that may impact Community Health Center patients and communities.
- Show support for the Community Health Center mission and movement.

How do I get started?

- Sign up for the National Association of Community Health Centers (NACHC) Health Center Advocacy Network at www.hcadvocacy.org.
- Get involved in your state's Community Health Center advocacy through your State Primary Care Association (SPCA).
