BIOGRAPHY OF PATRICIA MOTEN MARSHALL

Patricia Moten Marshall is the president of SynerChange Chicago. Since 1996 she has served as consultant to senior executives, top management, and boards of directors throughout the US. Pat's consulting practice builds on her leadership experiences to cultivate cultures that embrace change, are enhanced by diversity, and engage the creative capacity of individuals and teams. Over 50% of her clients today are organizations focused on the delivery of health care. Her engagements range from assisting these organizations with strategic planning, governance, leadership and management development, teambuilding, performance management, business planning and operational assessments. She is a creative thinker, an accomplished presenter, an engaging speaker, and a skillful facilitator. Pat has an undergraduate degree from Kansas University, and a master's in hospital administration from St. Louis University. She serves as faculty for the Lake Forest Graduate School of Management Corporate Education Program, where she received the Most Distinguished Business Management Faculty Award of 2007. Change – What We Know!

- Increasing at an Exponential Rate
- Has both Dangers and Opportunities
- Assimilate Change at Micro, Organizational, and Macro Levels
- Increasingly people are hitting their “Future Shock” threshold

•Based on the work of ODR, Inc.

SynerChange Chicago © 2010 Managing Change Series: Roles in the Change Process- 10/06/10

Future Shock!

That point in time when people can no longer assimilate change without displaying dysfunctional behavior.

•Based on the work of Alvin Toffler

Goal

- Raise the Future Shock Threshold
 - Education
 - Increase Resilience During Change
- Use fewer assimilation points during change
 - Implement change more effectively

The Four Roles

SynerChange Chicago © 2010 Managing Change Series: Roles in the Change Process-- 10/06/10

Roles in the Change Process

- Sponsor - individual or group who has the organizational power to legitimize the change
- Change Agent - individual or group responsible for implementing the change
- Target - individual or group being impacted by the change
- Advocate - individual or group who wants the change to occur and does not have the organizational power to legitimize it.

Overlapping Roles

SynerChange Chicago © 2010 Managing Change Series: Roles in the Change Process-- 10/06/10

Question #4

- Which of the four roles is the most significant determinant of whether change is successfully implemented?
 - Sponsor
 - Change Agent
 - Target
 - Advocate

SynerChange Chicago © 2010 Managing Change Series: Roles in the Change Process- 10/06/10

Sponsorship

- Sponsorship is Critical to Successful Change
- Weak Sponsors Must be Educated, Replaced, or Prepare to Fail
- Sponsorship Cannot be Delegate to Agents
- Initiating and Sustaining Sponsors Must Never Attempt to Fulfill Each Other's Functions.
- Cascading Sponsorship Must be Established and Maintained.

•Based on the work of ODR, Inc.

SynerChange Chicago © 2010 Managing Change Series: Roles in the Change Process- 10/06/10

Initiating vs. Sustaining

- Initiating and Sustaining Sponsors Must Never Attempt to Fulfill Each Other's Functions.
 - "Initiating" sponsors have the legitimizing power to start a change process for all individuals who must change.
 - "Sustaining" sponsors have the logistical, economical, and political proximity to those who must change.

SynerChange Chicago © 2010 Managing Change Series: Roles in the Change Process- 10/06/10

Cascading Sponsorship

•Based on the work of ODR, Inc.

SynerChange Chicago © 2010 Managing Change Series: Roles in the Change Process- 10/06/10

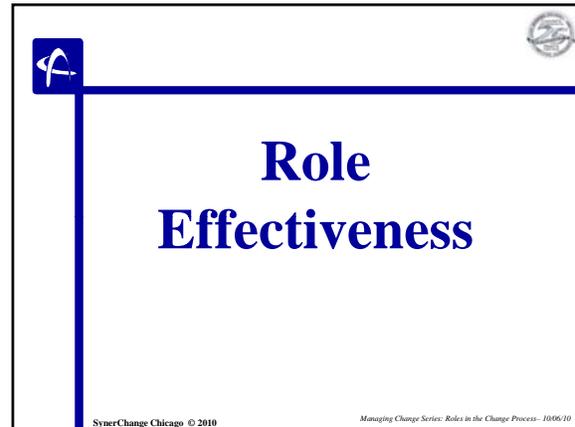

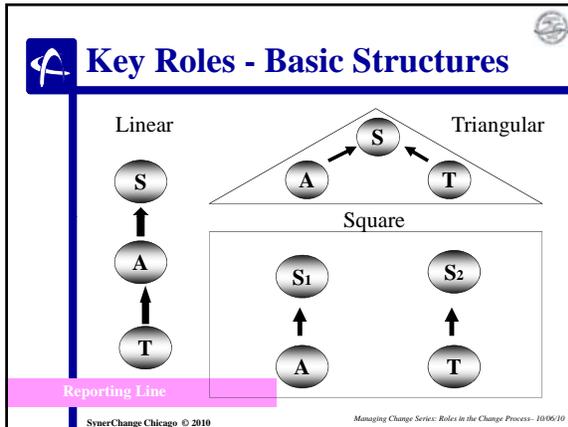

Question #5

- How many of you perform a sponsor (initiating or sustaining) role for the change you are focused on today?

Managing Change: Empowering CHCs to Succeed

Staff Session Two: Roles in the Change Process

Pre-Work

In preparation for Session Two of the series, participants are requested to select a "Change Initiative" to focus on during the series if they have not already done so.

Instructions for selecting the "Change Initiative"

- Each person should select a change initiative that meets the following criteria.
- Criteria:
 - The change initiative should be one in which there has already been a decision to move forward
 - The change has a significant impact on you and the area in which you work
 - If you are a manager, the change should be one in which your leadership is key to the successful accomplishment of the change for the people reporting to you
 - For the change initiative to be successful, people will have to think or behave differently than they did prior to the implementation of the change initiative
 - Select a change that has not been fully implemented, and fits into one of the following categories:
 - The change has been approved for implementation, however it is still in the planning stages
 - Implementation of the change has only recently begun
 - The change is well underway, however, there is significant resistance that may lead to an unsuccessful implementation
 - It does not matter if you consider the change as positive or negative

Provide a brief description of the change below:
