

Shopping for Health Care Coverage?

Your Local Community Health Center is Where You Can Find Affordable, Quality Health Care

In your state, more individuals and families now qualify for public health programs like Medicaid.

You also have the choice of several new private health insurance plans.

There are new tax credits available to help low-income residents afford private health insurance.

No one can be denied health insurance coverage because of a pre-existing condition.

Thanks to the Affordable Care Act, there are many new options for the uninsured and underinsured, but you still may not understand all of the choices.

If you need help, Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHCs) have years of experience in connecting people to affordable health care, regardless of income.

Do you have questions about the Affordable Care Act?

Do you want to know if you now qualify for Medicaid under the new guidelines?

Do you need help accessing the Connect for Health Colorado website?

Or do you just not know where to start?
